BAFTA Win

The Board of Zinc Media is delighted to announce that its subsidiary, Brook Lapping Productions, has won a BAFTA for best specialist factual programme for 'Suffragettes With Lucy Worsley', a documentary produced for BBC One which dramatised testimony of a group of working-class women campaigning for the right to vote. The ground-breaking programme was up against stiff competition in this highly prestigious category.

The British Academy of Film and Television Awards ('BAFTAs') are regarded as the most prestigious TV and Film awards in the UK and enjoy worldwide recognition.

Chief Executive Mark Browning said:

"These awards are a tremendous recognition for Zinc Media Group. Awards such as this BAFTA recognise the company is highly regarded as one of the UK's foremost creators of outstanding television".
